

Take your ID card to the hospital: the right move

Are you being admitted to the hospital? An emergency?
Do you have a doctor's appointment? Remember to take your and your children's ID card to the hospital.

That way, the reception and registration will be faster and the billing easier. You might also avoid having to pay your medical bill in full : your health insurance fund will pay their part directly.

